It's simply good risk management

We recommend that our clients take advantage of our tax investigation service.

In recent years, we have seen an increase in the number of enquiries, both into individual tax returns and company returns. The tax authorities now have more powers than ever before to investigate UK businesses.

An enquiry or investigation into your tax affairs by HMRC can be disruptive, intrusive and expensive. It can also be a long and time-consuming process, in some cases lasting for a year or more, which in turn can lead to spiralling costs.

Our tax investigation service ensures that clients will receive our help and assistance with all aspects of an enquiry or investigation.

Why clients should take advantage of our tax investigation service

Every taxpayer who submits a tax return is at risk of being selected by HMRC for an investigation into their tax affairs. HMRC does not need to have a reason to launch an investigation.

Irrespective of the outcome, the taxpayer will have to pay the cost of handling an investigation. This is why we are offering clients comprehensive, yet cost effective, cover.

Our tax investigation service is tailored to meet the needs of our clients and will provide them with the peace of mind that our professional fees will be covered in the event of an HMRC tax investigation or enquiry.

An additional benefit is that clients will have access to a business support helpline. A friendly team will be available to advise on common legal issues, such as:

Employment & personnel

- Disciplinarys
- Dismissal
- Gross misconduct

Health & Safety

- Reporting an accident
- Dealing with hazardous substances

Commercial legal issues

- Landlord & tenancy agreements
- Company law
- Copyright & patents

Tax investigation protection for all

Our tax investigation service, which is backed by an insurance policy that we hold with Professional Fee Protection Limited (PFP®), will cover our professional fees that result from most types of HMRC enquiry or investigation (full details are listed in the 'service summary').

We will be free to work on your case for as long as it takes to bring about a resolution, up to the policy limit.

For limited companies and partnerships, the tax investigation service provides inclusive cover for all relevant individuals. When a business signs up to the service, all its directors, partners and their spouses and company secretaries, will also receive representation during an investigation into their personal tax affairs, as well as those of their business.

To provide this service, we need to be acting as the tax returns agent for the individuals in question. A personal subscription is, however, required for each individual where gross rental exceeds £50,000 per year, or for any other business activities.

A small price to pay for peace of mind.
